

ENUMCLAW SCHOOL DISTRICT TECHNOLOGY PROGRAM REVIEW

PROJECT SUMMARY AND STATISTICS

Puget Sound ESD Program Review Team

Terry Hippenhammer – Executive Director, Technology Services

- Coordinate the technology program review process.

Angela Parsons – Director, Network Services

- Provide infrastructure expertise and standards-based recommendations.

Conn McQuinn – Director, Educational Technology Support Center

- Provide educational technology expertise and analyze survey and interview data.

Kevin Hasslinger – Director, Online Development Center

- Provide survey instrument and manage survey process.

Project Summary

Puget Sound ESD Technology Services staff was retained to perform an external review of Technology services for Enumclaw School District. The process included completion of a request for information regarding technology use in the district and perception data collected through surveys and interviews. This document contains findings of the PSESD Program Review Team, and contains information for discussion with the Enumclaw School District Technology Committee.

Survey Statistics

Staff survey count = 205

Community survey count = 52

Student survey count = 1,375

Interview Statistics

Group Interviews = 12

Superintendent and Cabinet, HR / Business Office, Tech Team leaders, Tech staff, Building Administrators, Building Office Managers, District CIA/Special Ed, Elementary Classified, High School Certificated Staff, Middle School Certificated Staff, Secondary Classified (no show), Elementary Certificated Staff (no show)

Individual Interviews = 3

Human Resources Director, Network Server Administrator, Special Services Director

Site Visit

Reviewed Technology portable for the purpose of determining the suitability of facilities for repair, installation, storage of inventory, and surplus.